*Time marches forward, it goes just one way. There's no delay. There's no replay.
Turn wasted moments to hours and days, and you'll regret it for the rest of your life.*
 "Rest Of Your Life" song lyrics, Paul Strummer's first album "Strummer Singer Songwriter (acoustic)"

*So live out your whole life... like this is your last night.
And hold your loved ones tight... when the moon is awfully bright.*
 "The Moon Is Awfully Bright" song lyrics, Paul Strummer's second album "Theory Of Everything (solo acoustic)"
